

BEFORE GRAND JURY.*TRAPPED A BOSTON MAN.

Byrnes, Wilson, Martin and Edson Give Information.

Presentments Likely in the Coroners' Office Investigation.

Abolishment of the Coroners' Office May Be Recommended.

Some excitement was caused among the attaches of the District Attorney's office this morning by the appearance of Superintendent Wilson of the Health Board; Health Commissioner Edson and President Martin of the Police Board.

They had a few minutes' private conversation with District Attorney Wilson, and then went directly in the Grand Jury room.

They went before that body in regard to the investigation now being made into the affairs of the Coroners' office.

What they will testify to is not yet known, but it is inferred that they will give their advice upon the way the Board of Coroners should be conducted.

The Grand Jury assembled at 10:30 o'clock, which is a half hour earlier than their usual time, and resumed the hearing into the way things are being run in the Coroners' office.

All the Coroners, except Coroner Messmer, have been subjected to a close examination. Clerk Reynolds and Stenographer Strasser have given their testimony, and the books of the office have been thoroughly overhauled.

It is said upon good authority that the presentation of the Grand Jury will recommend that the Coroners' office be abolished. The Grand Jury will also recommend that the work now being done by the Board of Coroners be placed under the direction of the New York Police Justice Vorobieff and Smith were before the Grand Jury this afternoon.

The Grand Jury adjourned at 1:45 until to-morrow morning.

Broker Seymour's Plan to Avoid the "Stable Street" Front.

Broker Charles A. Seymour has prepared a plan by which it is thought the plot of ground at Fifth Avenue and First Street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, is a "stable street." Mr. Seymour proposes having a court-yard and driveway in the centre, on which houses are to front.

He said the Union Club has dropped negotiations for the purchase of the property.

Early Taxpayers Gets the Rebate.
Oct. 2—The first day for filing tax returns on the levy for 1893 Tax Inspector Allen expects that many more than last year will take advantage of the rebate allowed for early payments and that several millions will be paid in at once.

For that "front de ville" fee of $100,000, the Hudson-Beltzler tract will be sold.

NORTH RIVER BRIDGE BILL.
Hitch in the Senate Committee Over Certain of Its Provisions.

Objection to Powers Conferred on a New York City Board.

ANDREWS TO ASK FOR MORE.
The $2,200,000 of Last Year not Enough for Streets.

He Wishes to Introduce the Paris Sweeping Plan.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—It appears that the New York and New Jersey bridge bill is likely to encounter difficulties in the Senate Committee on Commerce unless it is materially modified. The Committee held its second meeting last night and took no action.

Ex-Congressman Phil Thompson of Kentucky, appeared before the Committee and made a statement urging the necessity of an early action by the Senate in connection with the bill. The depth of his conviction regarding the desirability of the sweeping plan led Senator Hill to have addressed the Committee also, but failed to appear.

Under the bill, as drawn and advanced by the Bridge Company, the location of all approaches to the bridges in the city of New York requires the application of a minimum of 100 feet of the sidewalk.

Another provision prohibits the occupation of the approaches to the bridges by any person or persons except by express written permission of the Bridge Company.

Walker noted an address in Twenty-second street painted on the side of the wagon, and he reported it to Captain Campbell, who learned that the wagon had been removed to 36 Third street near Fourth avenue, and that Gibellini had been seen no longer.

Walker followed the wagon down Second blocks, but the driver whipped up his team and ran away.
